DEVOTIONS: We Are Valuable to God

Go to a store and buy a baseball you might spend $5.00 for it. After all a ball is a ball and a baseball is really just like any other ball. They're really not anything special about them, just a piece of leather tied together with laces. Some would say the same about us, that there isn't anything special about us. We are not all that different than the other animals on this planet. We have bones just like other animals and it's all tied together with the same kind of flesh and skin.

What if I told you that if you wanted to buy this ordinary looking baseball that I have here with me, I wouldn't be asking for $5.00 but rather $350.00? You'd probably laugh and say "No way!" Until, I turn it around and show you the signature on the ball. This ordinary baseball became extraordinary because a name was place on this ball. Stan Musial, a St. Louis Cardinal player, one of the greatest players to play the game of baseball signed this ball. It's not the ball that is so special but rather what's written on it.

The Bible has something incredible to say to us. It says in Revelation 3, "I will place my name on your forehead." It may seem that we are ordinary, that there is nothing special about us. But unlike any other animal created on this earth, we have God's name written on us, through our baptism. In the waters of baptism, God comes to us, puts his name on us, and says, "You're mine." That's not ordinary, that's extraordinary.

KABIN KORN

GAD (right): No one got to sleep last night because everyone couldn't get comfortable. There was a hornet in the left side so they had to come and stay in the right side until 10:15. We all made lots of friends and we feel like we've known them forever.

ASHER (left): Asher is the bomb! Everyone is best buds and our counselors Rock! Everyone comes over to the left side and we just talk or eat, or play with our prizes. Well, so far it's been a great first day.

BENJAMIN: Today the girls had a good time with breakfast and cleaning—although they were panicking about cleaning, they were very happy when they finished.

DAN (right): Katie sang to us yesterday. Everybody was hyper. Everyone was scared because Emily S. told a story about Okoboji Pete. Somebody gave us candy and somebody had two pieces.

BIBLE TRIVIA

Here are today's questions. You may use your Bible to help you find the answers. Put the answers in the Bible Trivia box in the Christian Life Center by 9:15 a.m. tomorrow. You don't necessarily have to have all the answers right to win - if nobody gets all the right answers, the one with the most right wins. Ties will be broken by a drawing. The prize is a spending ticket.
